Sun in Gemini (29° Gem 02' 09")

You are airy and intellectual, quick witted and curious about life and other people. You can experience two sides of things at the same time and you tend to be flighty, and you move through life like a butterfly, engaging in many varied experiences to gain knowledge. You are witty and have a good sense of humor and are likely to be an excellent conversationalist, yet you can also be nervous and highly-strung and may be mischievous. You tend toward liberty in relationship, although can be easily bored, but with some self-discipline, you have tremendous intellectual and artistic possibilities. You abhor violence.

Your sun is also in what we astrologers call the Eighth House. This represents a vital force to transform and regenerate and to relate with others intimately. It is your nature to marry sensitive perception with experience. Through your understanding of your inner self, you easily perceive the motives of those around you. You penetrate every variation of deep emotion in order to confront your own nature. You act from a primal urge to merge with others, and to partake in the sacred and secret relationships between yourself and the world. Through merging with others at the depths of human experience, you investigate your own emotional desires. You are very aware of fathomless human needs through your deep knowledge of the instinctual level of interrelation, and the fear of loss, or death. Your aim is to metamorphose yourself in order to experientially manifest the cycles of death and rebirth from within your own inner world. You benefit when you experiment with and confront your fears and insecurities in healthy ways, around people who support your need to grow intensely, in order for you to maintain an ever-expanding boundary of security.

Scorpio Rising

The Rising Sign is the mask shown to others, also the physical appearance. Scorpio rising people are passionate and deep and can be secretive. Your ruling planets are Mars and Pluto. You can have a dark look to your appearance, but you may also appear sweet and refreshingly innocent. Scorpio is the most intense sign of the Zodiac, and is associated with sexual activity and with the symbolism of death and rebirth. Your emotions run deep, and you also have great personal magnetism, and even the power to coerce others. Your will is strong, and you let nothing stand in your way. You may suffer in your life, but your pain leads to important personal transformation. You are very good at group dynamics, and working with the public. You are a shrewd judge of other people's motives, and you may be willing to use your special knowledge to your own advantage. Although you can be manipulative, when you work out your issues to be more in line with your own higher nature you have also the power of a healer, to transform yourself, and society around you.
